

Project educational objectives

(in the field of environmental issues):

- learning to know

(young people understand...)

- learning to do

(young people is able to...)

- learning to live together

(young people work with others in ways that...)

The illiterate of the 21st century will not be those who cannot read and write,
BUT those who cannot learn, unlearn and relearn.

Education for Sustainable Development (ESD) empowers learners

TO CHANGE THE WAY

they think and take informed decisions and responsible actions for environmental integrity, economic viability and just a society, for present and future generations, while respecting cultural diversity.

Environmental Literacy for Youths
in 21st Century:
go to green team together

(ELY, 04/04/2018 – 11/07/2018)

One of the project aims is supporting the youths lacking opportunities and promoting equity and inclusion to youths with disadvantaged backgrounds (economic and geographical obstacles (remote or rural areas, peripheral regions, small islands)).

Erasmus+

The project is financed from EU funds. The National Agency and the Commission are not responsible for potential use of information contained in this notice. It expresses only authors' (NGO BIOSPEKTRUM (Slovakia), Society Development Foundation (Bulgaria) and Genista Research Foundation (Malta) own opinions.
